ESTATE OF JAMES MATHIESON

February 28, 1903.

Mrs. Myrtle F. Smith brings suit against Fielding B. Smith. They live at Charlestown, this county. The com-ESTATE OF JAMPS MATHIESON.

STATE OF VERMONT. In Probate Court. District of Washington, ss. I held in Monipelier, in and for said District, on the 14th day of April. A. D. 1266.

James Scott, Administrator of the Petate of James Mathieson, late of the City of Barre, in said District, deceased, presents his administration account for examination and allow-nhee and makes application for a decree of sistribution and partition of the estate of said deceased. Whereupon it is ordered by said fourt that and account and said application be referred to a sension thereof, to be held at the Probate Office, in said Montpelier, on the aid day of May, A. D. 1905, for hearing and decision thereon; and it is further ordered that notice hereof be given to all persons interested by publication of same three weeks successively in the Barre Daily Times, a newspaper published at the City of Barre, in this State, previous to said time appointed for hearing, that they may appear at said time and place and show cause, if any these may have, why said account should not be allowed and such decree made.

By the Court. Attest, plaint alleges that defendant owns $30, and $2,500 worth of property in this county, with an income of $2,000 per annum. Reasonable alimony and custody of two children are asked.

The divorce is usked under clause (e) of section 1 of the act, which is as folboard for a limited time may be grant-ed by the Superior and Circuit Courts of this State for the reason of habitual cruelty of one party toward the other or such constant strife of both parties as render their living together intoler-
